Annual Review Strategy

- SCDHHS paused scheduled annual review disenrollments for July 2023
- Applied for and received approval from CMS for eleven 1902(e)(14) waivers related to annual review process
 - ✓ Ex-Parte renewals for members with no income and no data returned
 - ✓ Ex-Parte renewals for members with income at or below 100% of FPL and no data returned
 - ✓ Other mitigation strategies related to Ex-Parte renewals
 - ✓ Partnering with MCOs to update member contact information
 - ✓ Use of the National Change of Address (NCOA) and United States Postal Service Returned Mail to update member contact information
 - ✓ Extended automatic re-enrollment into MCOs up to 120 days

Annual Review Strategy

- 1902(e)(14) Other Waivers Approved Related to the Annual Review Process (cont'd)
 - ✓ Permit applicants and members to designate an authorized representative via telephone without requiring a signature from member
 - ✓ Waived the recording of telephonic signatures
 - ✓ Reinstated eligibility effective on the member's prior termination date for members disenrolled for procedural reasons when determined eligible during the subsequent 90 days
 - ✓ Authorized MCOs to assist enrollees in completing the renewal, including completing certain parts of the renewal form
 - ✓ Suspended the requirement to cooperate with the agency in establishing the identity of a child's parents in obtaining medical support

Comparisons based on data as of 9/15/2023

Pharmacy Access Act & Medicaid

- Medicaid began enrolling Pharmacists as providers beginning October 1, 2023
- Enrolled Pharmacists are able to prescribe and administer injectable hormonal and self-administered contraceptives under a standing prescription drug order
- As of 9/28 there were 6 pharmacists in various stages of application for the program

Pharmacy Industry Access to SCDHHS

- SCDHHS schedules one-on-one meetings with pharmacy companies during the months of April-November
 - ✓ Meetings are scheduled every 3rd and 4th Wednesday from 9AM to 12 PM for 50 minutes per company per year
 - ✓ Responding companies are placed on a list and SCDHHS assigns the schedule based on a randomization process that occurs in March annually
 - ✓ Previous registrants are maintained on the list for subsequent years
- Interested companies should contact Lisa Correll with Magellan @ licorrell@magellanhealth.com or Lori Ash @ ljash@magellanhealth.com to be placed on the list for meetings
